Former State Executive Delivers Eleoquent Address-South Has No Apology to Make, but May Reloice in Reunited Country.

In the midst of a picturesque and beau-tiful scene, there were held yesterday af-ternoon in the Hebrew Cemetery exercises commemorative of the deeds and death of the little band of Confederate dead who

Many elements tended to make the occa-dict as a whole a most interesting and ittractive one. Beautiful flowers covered he graves and adorned the rallings sur-counding the little plot. A large com-many of Richmond people was present, and all were interested and attentive hroughout. The programme, including overal musical numbers of an excep-lence excellence, was most happily arsoveral musical numbers of an excep-tional excellence, was most happily ar-ranged. THE EXERCISES.

The exercises began at 6 o'clock in the evening and continued for about an hour. A most attractive programme was carried out, and everything, from start to finish, progressed smoothly and well.

Within the iron railing enclosing the graves of the Confederate heroes in whose memory the services were held, bright and beautiful flowers lent a fragrance and a charm to the seene. The well kept graves and the floral offerings placed upon them spoke eloquently of the loving care which fets no year slip by without some tribute to the memory of those who had fought and fallen in the Southern cause. Upon the iron posts of the railing garlands of flowers were hung. The speaker's stand was covered entirely with Federal and Confederate flags intermixed.

The attendance was all that could be desired. Men, women and children were all there in considerable numbers, and one of the notable features was the presence of so many ladies. Quite a number of the best known citzens of Richmond were present, including Mr. Charles H. Taylor, the Hon. D. C. Richardson, the Hon. J. Taylor Elliyson and others. Special seats, were arranged for the ladies of the Hebrew Memorial Association and the

GOV. O'FERRALL'S ORATION.

The prayer with which the memorial zervices began was offered by the Rev. George Cooper, D. D., pastor of the First Paptist Church. A hymn, "Why Sorrew'st Thou?" was sung by the fine quartette choir of Beth Ahaba Synagorue, made up of Mrs. John Murphy, Miss Mcliain, Mr. May and Mr. Hunter.

The orator for the occasion was the Jion. Charles T. O'Ferrall, ex-Governor of Virginia, who was introduced in a few appropriate words by Mr. Charles Hutzler, who presided over the exercises. The ad-

North delights to characterize the Civil War and showed that slavery existed above Masonand Dixon's line until it hecame unprofitable, when the Northern traders sold out to the South, put the slave-money in their pockets, and began to howl for emancipation.

FINVASION THE CAUSE.

Proceeding, Governor O'Ferrall showed that the real cause for the uprising in the South was the invasion of her constitutional rights, No blush of shame, he declared, need dyst the check of those whose relatives and the check of those whose relatives and the check of the constitution of the condition o

The last words of Governor O'Ferrall doalt with conditions in the country today, While there were held each year, he said, memorials commemorative of the deeds of the Confederate dead, the South had put out of her heart the bitterness which followed the strife and now recognized herself a part of one great and growing republic where one purpose moved and animated all. She has no applogues, no excuses to make, but she folias hands with the North and rejoices in the growing republic words and the strength of the great and untertectually of which she is an integrity of the great and untertectually of the great and untertectually of the great and another hymn and then the entire audience, accompanied by the band sang "America." Benediction was pronounced by Dr. George Cooper. As the exercises closed a salute was fired over the graves and the mournful and mysterious "taps" was sounded.

Being Celebrated.

(By Associated Press.)

IIAVANA, May 20.—The celebration of Cuba's independence day, the first anniversary of the establishemat of the Cuban republic, began at midnight with the illumination of the fronts of the principal clubs, the sending up of rockets and the screeching of steam whistles. Business was completely suspended and the streets were thronged with people. President Palma, accompanied by the Cablest officers and city and provincial officials, drove to the Punta, where he reviewed the members of the police and fire departments, and then, accompanied by Secretary of State Zaldo, he was driven up the Prado to the palace, continually acknowledging the salutations of the crowds which lined that thoroughfare. At noon the guns of Cabanis fortress announced that exactly a year had elapsed since the birth of the Cuban republic, and immediately thereafter the Rural Guards and artillery paraded on the plaza in front of the palace and were reviewed by the President.

During the review of the troops United States Minister Squires was the only foreigner in the Presidents party which occupied a balcony of the palace.

Dispatches received here from several of the Cuban cities indicated that the holiday was universally celebrated throughout the island.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Because Sir Michael Herbert and other representatives of the powers took exception to certain foot notes included in the blue book on Venezuela, the State Department has assured them that the blue book was prepared by Mr. Bowen, and is not to be considered an official publication by the Department.

The note to which the representatives of the powers took exception appears at the foot of one of the exchanges, where Mr. Bowen adds a word in explanation to the effect that the above note "was dictated late at night to the British and Italian ambassadors and the German minister," and by them cabled to their respective governments.

The diplomats took exception to the word "dictated," because they felt that the inference might be drawn that they were taking instructions from Venezuela's plenipotentiary.
